Call for Artists

This will be the 7th year for Art on the Farm and we are hoping to build on its success again this year with more artists and more people buying art. An estimated 500 people stop throughout the day.

Please join us for a day in beautiful Columbia Valley on a quaint hobby farm. Artists will be featured in stands throughout the apple orchard and hazelnut grove on Barking Dog Farm in Columbia Valley, Chilliwack.

All artists' work will be juried by event organizers (websites and/or pictures will do).

Registration Fees

- Before April 30th, $25
- After May 1st, $40

Please make cheques payable to "Art on the Farm" and mail to Art on the Farm, 1423 King Albert Ave., Coquitlam, BC V3J 1Y3. Registration fees cover advertising, promotional costs and having adequate insurance for the day.

What to Expect

We've noticed over the years our audience is primarily local residents looking for something different to do. Items that have sold well over the past few years are smaller items between $20-$80 and up to $150.

- Please be set up 1 hour prior to event start (visitors come early)
- Allow up to 2 hours travel if coming from Vancouver

Things to Note

Artists are asked to be self sufficient, including:

- A table and display items or such to sell wares.
- Food and drink for the day (although there will be a concession)
- All artists are responsible for their own money transactions (decide if you will accept cheques). We do not have visa or debit capabilities (the nearest ATM is 15km away in Cultus Lake Village).
- It hopefully will be a sunny and warm August day so bring a hat with sun screen and maybe some form of shelter for yourself and customers.
- We cannot have any dogs at the event due to the proximity to food and people's comfort levels with dogs.

Please consult the Information for Artists for full details and recommendations.
