

To exhibit at the Mission Art Center Gallery:

The Mission Art Center offers the MAGie gallery, gift shop and tea room display space where local emerging artists and artisans may exhibit and sell their works in any media. Artists living in British Columbia who are not represented by a professional gallery are considered local, emerging artists. The Mission Art Center welcomes submissions in all 2D and 3D media and techniques, including fibre arts, sculpture, painting, photography, prints and drawings.

There is a $10 non refundable Administration fee required at the time of the application submission. Once accepted, the artist will pay a $30 Gallery fee. All exhibitors must be members of the Mission Arts Council and pay the applicable membership fees.

Key deadlines:

May 1 st 2011	Submissions for the 2012 exhibition year must be received at Mission Art Center, incomplete proposals will not be accepted.
Oct 1 st 2011	Artists informed of jury decision
Nov 1 st 2011	agreements must be signed and returned with full payment of fees

Proposals:

Proposals to exhibit works must include the following components:

- CV/artists resume (including exhibition history and education).
- 5-10 high quality images of recent work and or images of work that you are proposing to exhibit. Each image must be numbered and the top right corner marked for viewing. The number of images must correspond to the list of works provided. Digital images must be submitted in 300 dpi resolution.
- List of works(including artists name, number corresponding to image provided, title, medium, date, dimensions) For group proposals, at least one work from each artist is required. See example.
- Artist statement (directly related to the proposed exhibition).
- Completed application form (pages 2 and 3 of this package).
- Self addressed, sufficiently stamped envelope for the return of materials if required.

Guidelines:

The Mission Arts Council Exhibition Committee will review all proposals and recommend selected artists based on the following criteria:

- Work must be original(no prints) and recent(created within the past two years)
